

Schedule
Saturday-Sunday, September 14-15

SATURDAY

Morning: Unscheduled Time. This would be a good time to get started on Kemmis, This Sovereign Land. The entire book should be read by Thursday evening, when we will have a seminar about it. Then we discuss the book with the author on Friday morning in Missoula.

There will be other reading and writing assignments for this coming week, to be announced later today in Paul's class.

I should have this week's itinerary and reading list finalized by Saturday evening.

THE COMPUTER LAB WILL BE CLOSED THIS MORNING SO WE CAN DO SOME MAINTENANCE AND SET-UP. CORY AND KALIN MAY WORK ON THE WEBSITE, AND BEN DEUMLING MAY BE ABLE TO HELP FOLKS SET UP OUTLOOK ON THEIR MACHINES.

12:00 Lunch

1:00 First Class, Environmental Writing and Rhetoric in the American West

2:30-3:30pm Camp Logistics meeting with Lindsey

6pm Dinner with Religion Professor Rogers Miles

Evening Lecture and Discussion with Rogers Miles

SUNDAY

7:00 Breakfast

9:00 Depart for Riggins, Idaho

Travel Day. Travel time is about 4 hours, perhaps a bit more. Lunch on road.

Camp at Island Bar, on the Salmon River just above Riggins, Idaho. Possible evening visit by Dave Bingaman, a local outfitter. But this may not happen until Monday evening (Dave has not gotten back to me on his preference for Sunday or Monday evening)
